What's Current From Aurora Ministries

New West Coast Ministry Office

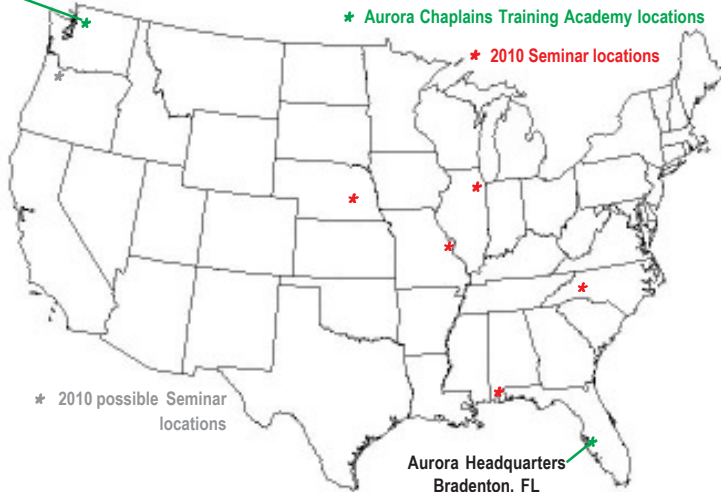

Due to God's grace working through His people, we are going to be able to open a new Ministry Office in the Pacific NW in May, 2010! This will open up training for more Chaplains and their assistant volunteers.

Having two ministry centers will also make travel to Seminars closer for more participants. We will serve ministers of the gospel in person on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. We are especially joyful to be able to offer Aurora Chaplains Training Academy (ACTA) class sessions in BOTH the Southeast and the Northwest.

Aurora Chaplains Training Academy

This program begun in 2006, is continuing to accept new students in 2010. Upon completion of 20 units work, a student is graduated with a Credential validating and sanctioning them as a fully trained minister fit for biblical chaplaincy. In 2010 we will hold sessions in FL, April 19-23 and Sept. 20-24. We will also start holding weekly sessions in WA. The first is scheduled July 19-23. To get an Application for yourself or a volunteer, you may print one from our web site. We can also e-mail it or send it via USPS, if you contact us and ask for it.

Recent and Upcoming Seminars

Just last month about 80 attendees enjoyed their time with us during our first ever Seminar-at-Sea (see the photo on the reverse side). Steve Camp brought them well prepared Bible messages and music which can, like previous Seminars, be heard on our web site. Here are a few comments from Chaplains that attended:

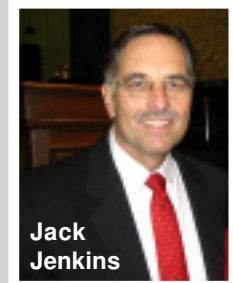

- "We appreciate the effort put into providing the Seminar and your burden to provide content that was uplifting and useful for us in the field."
- "I lost all my notes on the ship, but I remember how Steve talked about Paul and how his only focus was Jesus Christ ..."
- "I'm always blessed by your heart for Chaplains"

There is more on the back about the possibility of future cruise Seminars.

Our next three-day Seminar for Chaplains and volunteer gospel ministers that bring God's light into the spiritual darkness of prison will be April 8-10, 2010, in downtown St. Louis, Missouri. Our theme will be "Giving Inmates Biblical Advice." Our theme speaker will be NANC Certified Biblical Counselor and Pastor, Jack Jenkins. Gayle Jenkins (Jack's wife) will also conduct a special Session for wives of those that minister in this key area. We will meet at the beautiful Millennium Hotel (pictured at the right) near the banks of the Mississippi River. The photo shows the close proximity of the hotel to the Gateway Arch and the Westward Ho Museum.

What it does not show is the fact that the Millennium is across the street from Busch Stadium and a baseball museum is nearby. Attendees will have plenty to see during the long break we give them on day two.

We are continuing to underwrite the cost for these Seminars, making it possible for correctional and rescue mission ministers to attend for a nominal fee of just $50 ($70 for you and your spouse). Thank God for His grace and provision to enable us to do this. A Registration Form is available for any of our Seminars from our web site or you may contact us for an e-mail pdf attachment, or for us to send you one through the mail.

A New Order Form

We have designed a new and hopefully improved Order Form. It will allow you to make requests for our biblical material, which as always is offered to you for your gospel ministry - FREE of charge. This new form is broken down into two sections showing all we offer in either audio or printed materials. The audio section is further broken down into either MP-3 CD's or tape cassette albums. The back of the form, which can be downloaded and printed from our web site, also shows the languages available in audio materials and the newest updated locations for more Seminars.

More on Recent & Upcoming Seminars

This photo taken on our Seminar-at-Sea last month shows some of our attendees after we set sail from Nassau, and the Bahamas. Many of them asked when we might be able to do this again. We discussed it briefly and two other locations were suggested: from California to the Mexican Riviera, and from Seattle to Alaskan waters. The cost for these venues through Sovereign Cruises is ACTUALLY LESS than it costs us at a hotel or conference center! Check with us for information on future Seminars-at-Sea.

In addition to what we have planned for St. Louis, Missouri, in April, we are planning other Seminars in 2010. We have negotiated a three day North Carolina location, YMCA Blue Ridge Assembly, where we will teach on "Discipling Inmates." This will be June 10-12, with Pastor Carey Hardy from Winston-Salem. Our final three day 2010 Seminar, will be Nov. 11-13, at Camp Baldwin, in Elberta, Alabama (near Mobile). There, we will teach on "Giving Inmates God's Word." ACTA Academy students get unit credits for their attendance and completing assignments in relation to the Seminar.

One Day Seminars have also been arranged. The first will be May 8, 2010 in Aurora, Illinois (a suburb of Chicago). Then, we will also revisit Columbus, Nebraska for another One-Day Seminar on Sept. 18, 2010.

One-Day Seminars are sponsored by Chaplains that request them. Our Minister to Chaplains, Rev. Rich Hines, comes and teaches on topics from the Bible that relate to the ministry questions and difficulties these Chaplains ask about. Rich has 20 years experience as a correctional chaplain. A One-Day Seminar can be scheduled when he will be in your area or when you want to help with travel expenses.

The heart of Aurora's Chaplain Help Ministry is to help you bring God's light to those who sit in darkness. God's light is His life-giving truth found in the biblical gospel of Jesus Christ. He is still the only hope for sinners and the only real solution for habitual criminals. Our desire is to strengthen your hands and hearts in the Lord by offering the word of God as the only guide for life and ministry.
